The receiving institution will not ask the grantee to pay fees for tuition, registration, examinations or for access to laboratory and library facilities during his/her mobility period. Nevertheless, the grantee may be charged a fee on the same basis as local students for costs such as student unions and the use of study-related materials or equipment.

In the framework of this call for applications, persons with disadvantaged backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply and, in cases of equal qualification, aptitude and expertise, will be given preferential consideration.
Erasmus+ programme promotes equal opportunities and inclusion for all members regardless of gender, age, sexual orientation, religion and belief, disability and chronic illness, ethnic and social background. The actions aim at facilitating the access to the programme for participants with special needs. The University of Cologne and Jawaharlal Nehru University recognize that faculty, staff, and students need an environment in which they are respected and valued for their contributions in order to work and study effectively. This applies irrespective of their age, (dis)ability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, ethnic origin, religion and belief, sex and sexual orientation
