GIGA 2013 ACADEMIC WORKSHOPS

GIGA 2013 is the result of successful grant of funds from DWIH (German House for Research and Innovation) to four different workshops organised in the fields of Geography, Inorganic Chemistry, German Language and Literature and Anthropology. These workshops see participation of almost 40 professors from India, Germany and few distinguished guests from abroad.

The four events will simultaneously take place from 16 September – 19 September 2013. The aim of GIGA 2013 is to encourage research based activities between India and Germany. The workshop also has the purpose of evaluating the potential of Indo-German academic collaboration for long term projects such as International Research Training Groups.
